The District will accept courses offered through Missouri’s K-12 Virtual Instructional Program (MoVIP) as units of credit meeting state and local graduation requirements provided however the quantity and quality of completed student works meets standards applicable to the District’s traditional program. (Policy 6190).

Eligible students as defined in Regulation 2525 may pursue a timely graduation from high school through the School Flex Program. Eligible students participating in the School Flex Program will be considered full-time students.

Section 170.011, RSMo, requires all schools to provide regular instruction in the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of Missouri and in American history and institutions, beginning not later than seventh grade and continuing in high school. High school graduates must have passed a test or tests over that subject matter. The test(s), which may be administered at any grade, 7-12, must be developed or selected by the local school district. The date on which the test(s) were passed must be noted on students’ transcripts.

Section 170.011, RSMo, also requires all high schools to offer, during grades 9-12, the equivalent of one-half unit of credit in the institutions, branches and functions of the government of the State of Missouri, including local government, and of the government of the United States, and in the electoral process. All students must take and pass the course(s) designated for meeting this requirement. The course(s) must be clearly identified on students' transcripts.

Prior to graduation all students must participate in statewide assessments known as End-of-Course Examination (EOC) for high school level courses as required by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.
