

Professional Activities, Training and Professional Growth

The district believes that the provision of the highest quality education to its students requires the continuous efforts of all employees and Board members to upgrade and evaluate their professional skills. The District provides a variety of professional development opportunities.

Adopted: April 17, 2012

Knox County R-I School District, Edina, Missouri