

Compensation

Free Admissions

Board members (and immediate families defined as all who reside in the same household) and all employees (and immediate families defined as all who reside in the same household) shall be admitted to all Knox county R-I School District events free of charge. However, athletic tournaments or activities sponsored by the Missouri State High School Activities Association will require all persons to pay an admission at the rate determined by the activities association.

Persons 55 years of age or older shall be given free admission to any district sponsored event or activity upon presentation of identification to verify age.

Adopted: April 17, 2012

Knox County R-I School District, Edina, Missouri